

Condor: New partnership with Air Dolomiti (EN)

Leisure carrier Condor gains a new partner in Italy, Air Dolomiti. From November 1 2013, Air Dolomiti feeder and connecting flights for Condor longhaul routes can be booked over all channels. From now on, Air Dolomiti will operate feeder flights to the hubs in Frankfurt and Munich. With this cooperation, the Condor airline strengthens not only Frankfurt, but also Munich as the new longhaul base, providing the ideal link to the important foreign market of Italy for a varied longhaul flight program that boasts exclusive destinations in such locations as Asia, the Caribbean, Africa and the Indian Ocean.

Air Dolomiti operates flights to Frankfurt and Munich from numerous Italian cities, including some smaller ones. These include Ancona, Bari, Bologna, Florence, Genoa, Milan, Palermo, Pisa, Rome's Fiumicino airport, Turin, Trieste, Venice and Verona.

More information about the Air Dolomiti can be found on the Air Dolomiti homepage at www.airdolomiti.de.

Feeder flights with Air Dolomiti can be booked at all travel agents, online at www.condor.com, or by phone on 01806/767767 (€ 0.20/call from a German landline, by mobile max. € 0.60/call).

Condor Flugdienst GmbH has been flying its passengers to the world's most beautiful holiday destinations since 1956. On an annual basis, 6.7 million passengers fly with Condor to around 75 destinations in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. Since 1 October 2013, the various companies in the Thomas Cook Group plc have been linked by a single symbol: the Sunny Heart. All Thomas Cook Group Airlines aircraft bear the Sunny Heart on their tail units to express their common identity. The fleet of airlines in the Thomas Cook Group comprises 86 modern and environmentally friendly aircraft, of which 39 aircraft are in the Condor fleet: 12 Airbus A320s, two Airbus A321s, 13 Boeing 757-300s and 12 Boeing 767-300s. The aircraft are maintained by the airline's own technical operations.
